

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Gladys Fodness, as a wife, mother and grandmother, has given her love and understanding not only to her family and friends, but as a school teacher to many school children; and,

WHEREAS, Gladys was born and raised in South Dakota and graduated from Davis High school, received her two-year teaching certificate from Southern Normal School at Springfield, South Dakota, and later earned her Bachelor's Degree from Sioux Falls College; and,

WHEREAS, Gladys taught in the Lennox community for 35 years; and,

WHEREAS, Gladys was given the Teacher of the Year Award by the Lennox District for the 1988-1989 school year for her dedication to the education of the youth of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Gladys was given the K.D.L.T. "Teacher Who Makes A Difference" Award in 1990; and,

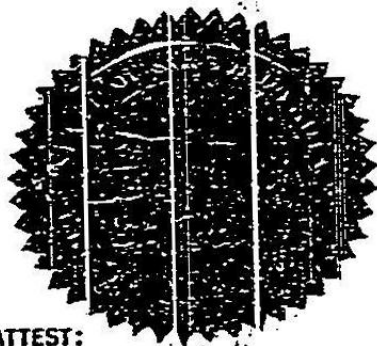

WHEREAS, Gladys has been a community worker throughout her lifetime serving her church, American Legion, and enjoying doing various projects to involve the young people and help keep the community together; and,

WHEREAS, It has now come time for Gladys Fodness to retire, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this outstanding South Dakotan;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 6, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join in wishing her an enjoyable retirement and in expressing our gratitude for her exceptional contribution to the field of education and the art of teaching.

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltime
